Knaken Family

Become a Family Member and share in our success!

A very extensive loyalty program and a unique investment method for the modern investor. The Knaken Family makes it possible to become the owner of a piece of Knaken by means of a so-called SAR, which stands for: Stock Appreciation Rights. This is comparable to an economic right to a share of a company. Each member acquires a right which is linked to the value development of the company.

By joining the Knaken Family, in addition to the many benefits, customers can take advantage of the emerging cryptocurrency market without running any price risk. Knaken earns in both a rising and falling market.

In addition, you help with the large-scale acceptance of crypto. This allows Knaken continue to innovate and build new products. We are working together towards a future where crypto is fully integrated into society.

All Knaken Family Members receive a discount or for example receive extra interest on products. In addition, buy and sell your crypto at cost price in the market.

All Knaken Family Members are paid when Knaken goes public, or is sold for more than 50% to another company.

All Knaken Family Members receive dividend when dividend is paid to the shareholders.

All Family members are the first to be notified of new features and are the first to use it. In addition, everyone can see that you are a Family member.

LIMITED AVAILABILITY

Since there are only a limited number of shares over which rights can be acquired, the Knaken Family Packs will be available in limited quantity. Knaken Family is therefore only available to customers.

Knaken Family Packs are sold in batches and to avoid a run, each customer is limited to 3 packs. If you want to invest more in Knaken, we recommend that you contact us.
